Bar Association of Erie County Issues Ratings for Judicial Candidates

May 27, 2025 - The Bar Association of Erie County has completed its 2025 ratings of judicial candidates for Erie County Court, Erie County Family Court and Buffalo City Court. Ratings are done annually to assist the public in making informed voting decisions.

The 2025 ratings are as follows:

Erie County Court

Hon. James F. Bargnesi - Qualified
Jessica Kulpit – Well Qualified

Erie County Family Court

Hon. Brenda M. Freedman – Well Qualified

Buffalo City Court

Hon. John Patrick Feroletto – Well Qualified

The Association uses a four-level rating system of Outstanding, Well Qualified, Qualified, and Not Recommended.

The Judiciary Committee is nonpartisan.

Ratings are done by a committee of 29 lawyers, with no more than 14 from a single political party. At least 9 new lawyers join the Committee each year. No member of the Committee may seek election to judicial office or publicly endorse or oppose any candidate for judicial office. A similar prohibition applies to BAEC Board Directors.

Criteria and Process are Comprehensive.

Judicial candidates are evaluated on criteria necessary to hold judicial office, including integrity, experience, professional ability, education, reputation, industry, temperament, fairness, statutory standards, attitude, punctuality, and knowledge of the law. Judicial candidates are asked to complete a written questionnaire and are also interviewed as part of a multi-faceted rating process. Interviews with lawyers and judges who have interacted with the candidates are also considered in determining the rating for judicial office.
